

The Ton Hoek Scholarship provides an annual $1,000 stipend for a student pharmacist, fellow, resident, or PharmD graduate pursuing graduate studies to attend the International Pharmaceutical Federation (FIP) Congress. Through participation in FIP Congress, the recipient will learn firsthand about global health issues. The individual will be encouraged to participate in FIP Congress networking opportunities, presentations, poster sessions, and report submissions. Results of this international experience, with the knowledge and relationships developed, will advance the career of participating individuals and further their relationship with FIP.

TON HOEK SCHOLARSHIP

About the Ton Hoek Scholarship

The APhA Foundation has established an endowed scholarship to memorialize Mr. A. J. M. (Ton) Hoek's commitment to the global community of pharmacists. In his role as CEO and General Secretary of FIP, Mr. A. J. M. (Ton) Hoek (1955-2012) built many global relationships in the pharmacist community. In his tenure at FIP, Hoek helped solidify the federation's global partnerships with the World Health Organization (WHO) and other organizations. His leadership efforts resulted in positive collaboration for FIP, both within pharmacy and at the broader level of world health. The Ton Hoek Scholarship provides an annual stipend to support the student pharmacist, fellow, resident, or PharmD graduate pursuing graduate studies recipient in FIP Congress attendance expenses.
